Women like Aster are standing together to gain respect, freedom and power over their own lives. Will you stand with them? Every £1 you give is worth £5!

Aster's story

Can you support our Harvest Appeal this year to give women like Aster the help they need to improve their lives? Aster was overburdened because she is a woman. Farming, cooking, carrying firewood – life was a constant struggle. But Aster refused to give up. She's come together with women in her village, in Ethiopia, to open a shop powered by the sun. With training from our partner, Aster and her 'sisters' have turned their shop into a thriving business.

We've been there for refugees since 1945.
We won't turn our backs now.
